Conference – A Powerful Business Tool When Used To Your Advantage

The Premier Events Marketplace

Travco World Events Network connects to a comprehensive database of over 75,000 meeting venues and event suppliers worldwide. We can find detailed profiles for a variety of meeting spaces and service providers, send reservations to multiple suppliers at once, compare quotes, and select vendor platform for a business to express a specific message in an engaging and creative way. Conferences create a vibrant and interactive atmosphere that engages its participants as well as educates them in current business methods.

At Travco World Events, we understand how impactful a conference can be. Your business is on show, and your image is on the line. We take time to understand your business needs, your conference objective and get to know your delegates/staff thoroughly.

Together, we will create a conference that is perfect for your needs.

1. Destination and venue selection – A location for a conference can be almost anywhere, limited only by your imagination and budget. Travco World Events has network solution access to the world, giving you unlimited destinations and venues that match your objectives, audience, theme and budget.
2. Transport / flight / transfer – We are a MICE specialist and pride ourselves on our skills and knowledge in arranging your delegates/staff to and even within the destination, no matter the form of transport.
3. Pre & Post Tour extension – As a renowned travel agency, we can put together individual pre and post tour extension for each of your delegates or fellow business partners. This can be within the destination country or the world at large.
4. Partner programmes – There is often a lighter side to any conference. For your guests to feel welcomed, we specialize in developing partner programmes to ensure that your guests are well provided for. From delightful tours to spa treatments, we can put together an array of optional programmes for your guests to partake in during their stay.
5. Conference essentials – Travco World Events can organize as much or as little as you need. From guest speakers to gala dinners, tours or team building activities, special events to award presentations.
6. Online registration – Depending on your conference needs, we can provide an online registration service. Where your needs are more complex, we can design an online registration system to meet your requirements to suit your budget.
